Our Object

"The object of this Club shall be to promote and encourage education, literature, the sciences and arts; to take part in civic affairs affecting the public interest; and to participate in movements connected with the general welfare of the community."

Motto

"The Union of All for the Good of All."

Collect of Club of America

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.
Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.
May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity and without prejudice.
May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.
Let us take time for all things; make us to grow calm, serene, gentle.
Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.
Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences, that in the big things of life we are at one.
And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common human heart of us all.
And, O Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.

Woman's Club of Winston-Salem

Our Club History

Copied from the 1968-1969 Yearbook

Fifteen women representing various clubs and organizations of the city met on April 25, 1919, with Miss Adelaide Fries in order to discuss with Mrs. Clarence Johnson, then president of The State Federation of Women's Clubs of North Carolina, the organization of a Woman's Club for Winston-Salem. The idea gained enthusiasm and on May 7, one hundred and seventy-five women answered the call for a mass meeting. This was held in The Board of Trade rooms on Liberty Street. With interest at a high peak, an organization was perfected with Mrs. Howard E. Rondthaler elected president and Mrs. Henry L. Riggins, vice-president.

The Y.W.C.A. very kindly offered the Club the use of their rooms until a clubhouse could be secured.

In the first two years, the membership grew to 380. We needed larger quarters for the monthly meetings. The new Robert E. Lee Hotel proffered us the ballroom. In 1922, a lot on Fifth Street between Broad and Summit Streets was purchased for $7,500, and paid for in 1923. Our present clubhouse was bought from Mrs. Cicero Tise in 1925 for the amazing sum of $67,500. We made a down payment of $10,000 together with the Fifth Street lot, leaving $50,000 to be paid in five years. Our clubhouse was opened on May 24, 1925, with a Sunday Vesper Service. The enormous task began of raising $5,000 plus interest and insurance each year. Every known way of money raising was tried. It was the survival of the fittest. The older women who could not act as saleswomen dropped out and new members were almost afraid to come in.

In 1930, thirty-one people endorsed a note to borrow $30,000 to pay off the indebtedness. In 1935, the loan was more than the active members could carry. We were faced with the loss of our clubhouse. Then the people of the community nobly came to our rescue. Twenty-two persons reduced the debt from $23,700 to $6,000 and the deed of title was transferred to the Winston-Salem Foundation. All this time, the interest groups were functioning and the Woman's Club was taking an active part in community betterment. Much remodeling was done to the house making it more adequate for large meetings and for upstairs renters. Since 1935, the club life has been one of enjoyment and outgiving, receiving the benefits of the club, rather than a hand to hand struggle for its very existence.

July 25, 1946 was a "Red-letter Day," as on that day The Woman's Club of Winston-Salem made its last payment on the debt, and a session of rejoicing was held by the Board of Directors. We are now the happy owners of our clubhouse.

In 1920 our Woman's club federated with the State Federation and the National Federation of Women's Clubs, and enjoyed the privileges and inspiration of this fellowship until 1934, when the club debt had become such a burden that we relinquished our state and national membership. In 1945 we again took up membership in the State Federation of Women's Clubs and in the General Federation of Women's Clubs in the United States.

The activities of the Club are departmentalized in accordance with the General and State Federations, namely – Conservation, Education, Fine Arts, Home Life, International Affairs and Public Affairs. The long established Interest Groups of the Club, Art and American Home, Evening Service League, Garden Club, Thursday Morning Music club, Tuesday Book Club, Poetry Lovers, Contract and Duplicate Bridge Clubs, continue to promote the departmental activities through well planned and interesting programs. The Garden Club and the Thursday Morning Music clubs are federated in their regular activities; each Interest Group must have a civic or charitable project. We feel that the numerous and varied projects selected contribute much to our status as a civic and charitable organization, both locally and state wide.

Throughout the years our Junior Woman's Club has flourished and it is with admiration and pride that we point to their accomplishments in local and state affairs. It is a pleasure to share with them the facilities and privileges of the Club House.

Our dream for the future of our Woman's Club is that, as every member ages out of the Junior Woman's Club she will join with us and continue to work toward civic and human betterment of Greater Winston-Salem.

Copied from the 1977-1978 Yearbook

May 7, 1977, marked the fifty-eighth birthday of our Club, since it was duly organized in 1919, when Mrs. Howard Rondthaler was elected the first president by one hundred sixty women who signed the membership roster in a large room over L. B. Brickerstein's Store on Liberty Street just below Third Street.

The seven original departments of the Winston-Salem Woman's Club as designated at this organizational meeting were: Literature and Art; Education and Library Extension; Social Service; Civics; Health; Home Economics, and Music.

By the end of the second Club year, the membership had grown to 321. A headline in the local Sentinel that year read, Daily Question Being Asked: "HOW CAN ONE GET MEMBERSHIP IN THE WOMAN'S CLUB?"

Affiliation with the State Federation was immediate and the new Club aligned itself with thirty-one movements in the city and state, some of which included the organization of the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion; the establishment of Probation Officers (then unheard of); the establishment of a cooperative produce market; a flower show; the beginnings of the County Home Demonstrator; a Story Hour at the Public Library; and the planting of a Memorial Highway between Winston-Salem and High Point with Norway Maples, Crepe Myrtle, and roses, some of which still survive.

Early meetings were held wherever space was available as the membership during the first four years soared to 555. During this time the venture to secure a clubhouse was started and our present one was purchased in 1924 for the staggering sum of $67,500.00. The ensuing years were dark and bleak for the Club. Many members dropped out, tired of struggling, and the end did seem to be near. In 1931 six past-presidents banded together to save the Club and the clubhouse. Through COOPERATION (the keynote to success) the mortgage was burned October 2, 1946. This is the heritage of the members of the Winston-Salem Woman's Club. May it live on and be cherished forever by all.

2002 by Peggie Corby

The years passed – membership changed. The Moravians who had founded the Club passed away. The Garden Club was the first interest group to leave the Woman's Club. We missed them especially, because they had kept our grounds at the Woman's Club House beautifully tended and decorated the House on the inside at Christmas time and at other special occasions. The Steinway Grand of the Music club contributed much to our music activities and made the clubhouse especially welcome for recitals and Federation activities. The Chorus of the Music Club was especially active, and outstanding directors led the members of the Chorus. The Bridge group shrunk a bit in size, and we now have only one group. Members participated in Federation activities, and members of the poetry and art groups won awards. One of the winning paintings hung on the wall of our clubhouse. An evening service league was formed to take care of our Junior Members who worked and could not attend meetings in the daytime hours. Some of these members are now active in our activities in the General Club.

As we approached the year 2000 our membership had dropped so low that we could no longer meet the necessary expenses for looking after the Club House. So once more we turned to the Winston-Salem Foundation and vacated the clubhouse. The Y. W. C. A. invited us to meet there as well as did Centenary Methodist Church, which we found more convenient especially since they would serve lunch to us, and we would no longer be dependent on caterers for our lunch meetings.

The Cicero Tise House, our former clubhouse, was sold and is being restored by a private entrepreneur.

Our membership today is growing. The Music Club has chosen to separate themselves from the Woman's Club. Our Tuesday Book Club is active and growing in membership. We have many active members who keep us up to date with community events, gardening news and music activities.

The Woman's Club of Winston-Salem during 2002-2003 will continue to meet at Centenary Methodist Church. We have lively programs and new members and enjoy being with each other the 1st Thursday in each month, except July and August.
